MEETING NOTES

RE: Austin Comprehensive Plan
Planning Advisory Committee Meeting #8

Date of Meeting: June 10, 2025

Project Manager: Mark Nolan

Time of Meeting: 4:00 to 6:00 P.M.

SEH No.: 180253

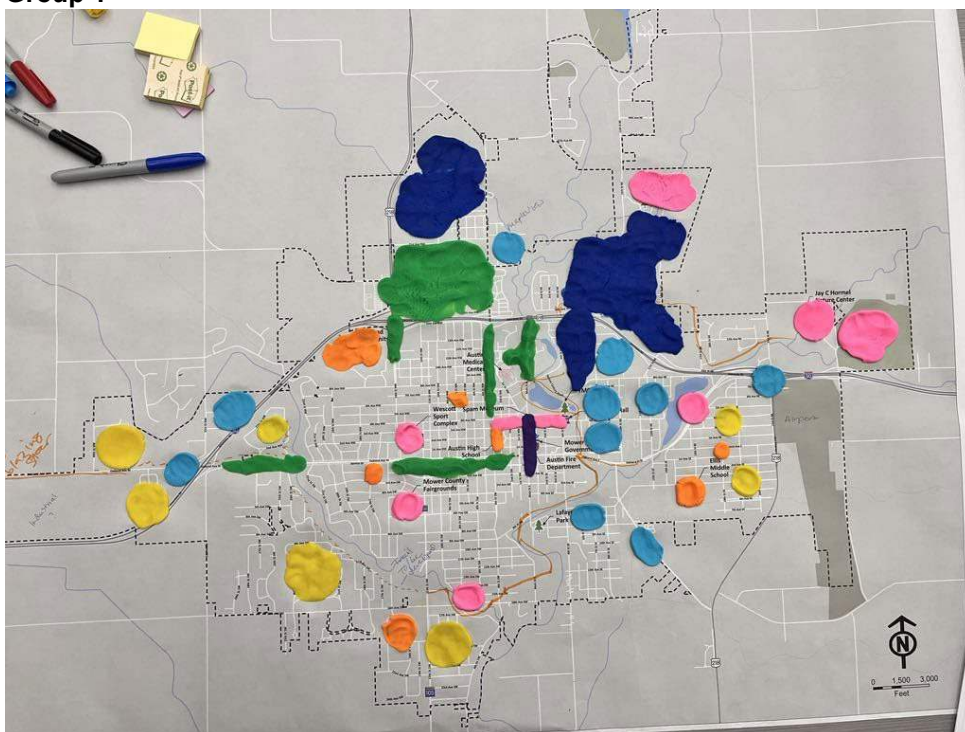

Location of Meeting: City Hall and Virtual via Teams

The following items were discussed at the above-referenced meeting (see attached presentation for additional reference):

- Schedule and Timeline Update
- Engagement survey #2 is now closed
 - A total of 220 responses
 - A complete summary of the survey is available on the project website
- Review of DRAFT Housing Goals and Strategies
 - The group reviewed the following goals and strategies for economic development.
 - Goal 1. Adopt an integrated framework for planning and developing housing within the community.
 - Strategy 1.1: Continue to work with the Austin Housing and Redevelopment Authority (HRA) to advance housing objectives in collaboration with developers, financing entities, and housing organizations.
 - Strategy 1.2: Implement recommendations from the 2022 Housing Study as a foundation for city actions to address and improve housing supply and conditions.
 - Strategy 1.3: Update the Housing Study every five to ten years to maintain an accurate and up-to-date view of housing issues, potential solutions, and actions to improve housing conditions.
 - Strategy 1.4: Identify priority areas for residential infill and new housing developments.
 - Strategy 1.5: Align the city's zoning, policies, and subdivision ordinances to advance an appropriate mix of housing types within each district, as well as eliminate unnecessary barriers for housing development.
 - Strategy 1.6: Attract developers to build the types of housing projects the city is seeking and addresses community needs. Create marketing information that communicates the community's vision for new housing areas.
 - Strategy 1.7: New housing development should follow smart growth and infill development principles. Prioritize development in locations with existing infrastructure to reduce urban sprawl and impact on natural amenities.
 - Strategy 1.8: Partner with the Welcome Center and Adult Learning Center to provide accessible housing resources to Austin's diverse populations.
 - Goal 2. Austin's housing supply will include a broad range of housing types (this includes style, size, and cost) that meet the community's current and future needs.

- Strategy 2.1: Promote the development of a variety of housing types, including single-family, elder facilities, workforce housing, multi-family, life cycle, cooperative, townhouse and accessory dwelling housing options.
- Strategy 2.2: Identify and promote sites that could attract development of new market rate rental housing.
- Strategy 2.3: Identify opportunities for the development of workforce housing that can easily access industrial and commercial employment areas.
- Strategy 2.4: Identify opportunities for high density development at appropriate locations.
- Strategy 2.5: Promote the downtown area as an attractive and convenient place to live. Support funding programs that aim to modernize downtown building upper floors for housing purposes.
- Strategy 2.6: Proactively encourage the reuse and renovation of unused institutional and vacant buildings, upper floors, and underutilized properties that are compatible with residential uses.
- Goal 3. Preserve the character of neighborhoods that give Austin a sense of place.
 - Strategy 3.1: Protect neighborhoods from incompatible land uses through effective zoning and city code requirements.
 - Strategy 3.2: Regularly review existing ordinances that reduce blight and improve housing conditions.
 - Comment: The city is in the process of hiring a new inspector that will work on housing preservation and enforcement of housing codes.
 - Strategy 3.3: Establish standards and incentives guiding infill and new housing to match the character of the existing neighborhood.
 - Strategy 3.4: Encourage preservation of historically significant buildings in downtown and neighborhoods.
 - Strategy 3.5: Ensure that housing developments are accessible to community resources such as jobs, retail districts, walking, biking, and transit networks.
 - Strategy 3.6: Require pedestrian facilities, such as sidewalks and/or trails, as part of residential street reconstruction and new housing developments.
- Goal 4. Create a system for maintaining, protecting, and renovating the existing housing stock.
 - Strategy 4.1: Continue to identify, support, and promote programs that assist property owners with repairing, modernizing and weatherization activities.
 - Strategy 4.2: Encourage housing development to be constructed in an energy efficient and environmentally friendly manner.
 - Strategy 4.3: Expand and/or accelerate programs to rehabilitate and/or demolish blighted residential properties.
 - Strategy 5.1: Identify and promote methods for reducing residential lot costs to increase housing production.
 - Strategy 5.2: Support the development of new smaller detached homes.
 - Strategy 5.3: Support and use available programs to assist first-time home buyers and to attract potential residents.
 - Strategy 5.4: Update city zoning and ordinances that allow attached and detached accessory dwelling units on single-family lots in appropriate locations. Dwelling units should meet a code that provide livable conditions and match the neighborhood's character.
- Land Use
 - The project team facilitated a hand-on mapping activity that identified districts and character of land throughout the city. This activity helps to think about potential locations for development or improvements, or types of development and growth that may fit in specific areas. PAC members were separated into two groups and asked to identify the districts on a map of the city. The following images show the districts and characters labeled by each group:

■ Group 1

- Review of DRAFT Land Use Goals
 - The group reviewed the following goals for land use
 - Goal 1. Provide a range of land use types and the most appropriate locations for development and redevelopment.
 - Goal 2. Maintain and enhance Austin's distinctive character, unique identity, and physical image.
 - Goal 3. Plan for the orderly, efficient and fiscally responsible growth and development within the community.
 - Goal 4. Identify, evaluate, and preserve natural resources prior to designating areas for development.
 - Goal 5. Encourage the continuing evolution of downtown as a vital mixture of commercial, residential, and civic uses.
 - Goal 6. Value, preserve, and maintain historic properties, documents and historic sites.
 - Goal 7. Encourage development of housing and increase the livability of residential districts.
 - Goal 8. Support the conservation of prime agricultural lands.
- Plan Outline
 - The project team presented an outline of chapters for the Comprehensive Plan, listed as followed:
 - Chapter 1. Intro: Purpose and Background
 - Chapter 2. Community Profile
 - Chapter 3. Community Engagement

- Chapter 4. Housing
- Chapter 5. Economic Development
- Chapter 6. Transportation
- Chapter 7. Public Utilities and Community Facilities
- Chapter 8. Parks and Open Spaces
- Chapter 9. Land Use
- Chapter 10. Implementation
- The 2045 Comprehensive Plan will include topics outside a traditional plan. This plan will incorporate the following elements: Local and regional food movement, tourism and recreation, sustainability and resiliency, downtown development, and technology.
- The project team has started developing the formatted version of the Comprehensive Plan. It asked PAC members to share photos that will be used in the plan.
- Introduction to Implementation
 - The implementation chapter will serve as a guide to implementing the strategies and recommendations presented by each chapter. Implementation will identify key champions and responsible parties for each goal and strategy.
- Next Steps
 - Present goals and strategies for land use
 - A draft of the Velocity Team Playbook will be available soon
 - Next PAC meeting on July 17

A Vision for Austin's Future

The City of Austin is a vibrant and diverse community offering a rich blend of culture, education, and nature. It is a place where people are connected by a strong sense of community and history. It fosters innovation, inclusivity and tradition, making it ideal to live, visit, work, and start a business residents.

The Plan's Vision is a statement that describes the Austin's future after the plan's recommendations are implemented. It was developed from the comments, priorities, and ideas gathered through a transparent community engagement process and refined through work with the Project Advisory Committee (PAC).

A landscape photograph of a sunset over a field. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow across the sky and the field. The sky is filled with scattered clouds, some of which are illuminated by the sun. The field in the foreground is a mix of green and brown, with a small barn and a few trees visible on the left side. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

Let's Plan Our Future.
